AMUSEMENTS.

ROBERT B. MANTELL TO-NIGHT.

—The distinguished romantic actor, Robert B. Mantell, will be seen at the opera house to-night. The engagement is an important one from the dramatic standpoint, and will prove one of the most entertaining of the season. Mr.
Mantell will present his latest success, "The Light of Other Days," a new romantic comedy that is said to be one of the best vehicles that this talented player has ever had. With it he has scored a pronounced success. The play deals with the events of the French Revolution, and is semi-historical. It is a play that is full of heart interest and appeals to all classes.

—The Harris-Parkinson Stock Company will open an engagement of one week at the Grand Opera House, Monday, Sept. 21, presenting an entire change of program nightly, with vaudeville and specialty features between acts. The opening bill is to be "Slaves of the Orient," a four act melo-drama of magnificent splendor, which ran for 230 consecutive nights at the Union Square Theatre, and is to be staged in Paris with special Oriental scenery

MR. ROBERT B. HARRIS,
—IN—
"A TRUE KENTUCKIAN."

owned by the company, and costumes made by Van Horn & Co., N. Y. Mr.
Harris has secured the sole and exclusive rights for this production, to be presented by a stock company at popular prices, which are to be only 10, 20 and 30 cents. On the opening night ladies will be admitted free, if accompanied by the holder of one paid 30 cent ticket and seat is reserved at Bolland's before 6 o'clock Monday. This company comes to Paris with the highest endorsements of the press and critics in cities where they have played for the past five years and Paris theatre-goers can look forward to a week of exceptionally good shows at low prices.

FINE WHISKIES.—The finest old whiskies can be found at the St. Charles Hotel Bar—Old Forester, Edgewater and VanHook. 8-4t

At Cartersville, Ga., the Rev. Sam Jones was badly bruised in a fight with Postmaster Walter Akerman. Mr. Jones from the pulpit denounced Mr. Akerman for selling wine, and said that the people of Cartersville "would rather have a negro hand them their mail than a dirty dog who uses his official position to violate the law." They met and the fight was on at once.

CHURCH CHIMES.

—Rev. A. N. White will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. Geo. O. Barnes, wife of the well-known Kentucky evangelist, died suddenly at her home in Sanibel, Fla.

—There are now ten supernumerary preachers in the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South.

—Elder Chas. R. Vawter, of Elizabethtown, will preach at Clintonville Christian Church, Sunday morning and night.

—Rev. Dr. Guerrant, the noted Presbyterian divine, says the Salvation Army excursion into Breathitt county, will do no permanent good.

—Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, aged 90, the Kentucky evangelist and convert of Dowicism, closed a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church in Whitesburg, Tuesday night. Barnes declared that the coming of the Messiah was near at hand.

He said: "Would that I could see Eastern Kentucky's fend-ridden district immortalized and reformed before I go away. I will never die, but will meet God in the natural flesh within a few months."

Barnes refused the professorship in the Zion Church of Theology in Zion City, near Chicago, to devote the remainder of his life in Kentucky's fend district. He preaches seated, as he is very infirm and tottering, but despite his extreme age his hair is black.
